PEOPLE v. D’ARCY (JONATHAN D.)

Record correction granted

Respondent’s “Motion to Correct the Record,” filed February 22, 2005, is granted.

The Clerk of this court is directed to transmit the original of volume 22 of the reporter’s transcript of the record on appeal to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange County.

The Superior Court of Orange County is directed to correct the record by removing the following quoted text from pages 4108 and 4109 of volume 22 of the reporter’s transcript:

“You must not be influenced by pity for a defendant or by prejudice against a him. You must not be biased against a defendant because he has been arrested for this offense, charged with a crime, or brought to trial. None of these circumstances is evidence of guilt and you must not infer or assume from any or all of them that a he is more likely to be guilty than innocent.

“You must not be influenced by mere sentiment, conjecture, sympathy, passion, prejudice, public opinion or public feeling. Both the People and the defendant have a right to expect that you will conscientiously consider and weigh the evidence, apply the law, and reach a just verdict, regardless of the consequences.”

The Superior Court of Orange County is further directed to retransmit to this court the original of volume 22 of the reporter’s transcript of the record on appeal and provide this court with a declaration by the court reporter stating the correction has been made.

The Superior Court of Orange County is further directed to send copies of the corrected pages and the court reporter’s declaration to counsel for the parties.

PEOPLE v. DYKES (ERNEST E.)
Order filed

The Clerk of this court is directed to return the record to the Alameda County Superior Court. That court is directed to hold a hearing on the failure of the public record in this case to conform to its August 24, 1995, order that the portions of the record containing jurors’ identifying information be sealed (RT 4048–4049) because a compelling governmental interest exists in safeguarding the jurors’ identities (see Code Civ. Proc., former § 237, subd. (b); Stats. 1993, ch. 632, § 2, pp. 3722–3723).

If the superior court decides that the public record is to be further redacted to conform to its 1995 order, it must notify the Clerk of this court. The Clerk must thereupon strike the filing of appellant’s opening and reply brief for failure to conform to the superior court’s 1995 order. If the superior court takes some action pursuant to which the record need not be further redacted, it must also notify the Clerk of this court. In that case, the filing of appellant’s briefs will not be stricken, and the Clerk must permit appellant to refile his original petition for writ of habeas corpus in In re Ernest Edward Dykes on Habeas Corpus (S126085) nunc pro tunc. This court’s order of March 30, 2005, in that cause is set aside to the extent that it requires appellant to take certain steps by May 13, 2005.

In either event, the parties may retain the copies of the record and the briefs that they currently possess, as long as they use them solely for purposes of the present proceeding and, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 12.5(g), do not publicly disclose any information from them that would violate the superior court's 1995 order, if it remains in effect.

The superior court is directed to hold its hearing no later than June 17, 2005. If it orders further redaction of the public record, it must certify the corrected record as soon as practicable thereafter and retransmit it to this court for filing, completing that process no later than September 30, 2005. If it orders further redaction of the public record, appellant is directed, no later than thirty days following the court's certification of the corrected record, to file corrected opening and reply briefs in the direct appeal and, if he wishes, a corrected petition for writ of habeas corpus in In re Ernest Edward Dykes on Habeas Corpus (S126085).

RICO v. MITSUBISHI MOTORS

Application to file document under seal granted

The propriety of the trial court's order sealing trial court Exhibit 52 is one of the issues before us on appeal, and disclosure of any of the contents of Exhibit 52 would necessarily prejudice that issue. Accordingly, pursuant to rules 12.5(e)(6) and 243.1(e) of the California Rules of Court, we find that, so long as this appeal is pending, "[t]here exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access" to any disclosure of the contents of Exhibit 52. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 243.1(d).) Furthermore, that overriding interest "supports sealing the record" and "[a] substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed." (Ibid.) Finally, "[t]he proposed sealing is narrowly tailored" and "[n]o less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest." (Ibid.)

Appellants' Motion to Seal Portions of Appellants' Briefs on Appeal, filed August 17, 2004, is granted. Appellants are hereby permitted to file under seal those portions of their opening brief on the merits that have been masked in the version of that brief marked "Public Redacted Version" and filed on August 17, 2004. In accordance with this order, the version of appellants' opening brief marked "Filed Conditionally Under Seal," which the Clerk of this Court filed on August 17, 2004, is hereby filed under seal on August 17, 2004, nunc pro tunc. In addition, permission is hereby granted to file under seal the version of appellants' motion marked "Filed Conditionally Under Seal" and filed on August 17, 2004.

Respondents' Application to File

Respondents' Answering Brief on the Merits Under Seal, lodged with the court on November 16, 2004, is granted. Respondents are hereby permitted to file under seal the portions of their answer brief on the merits that have been masked in the version of that brief marked "Public Redacted Version" and lodged with this court on November 16, 2004. The clerk is instructed to file as of the date of this order respondents' Application to File Respondents' Answering Brief on the Merits Under Seal and the version of respondents' answer brief on the merits marked "Public Redacted Version." The clerk is instructed to file under seal as of the date of this order the version of respondents' answer brief marked "Filed Conditionally Under Seal."

Based upon the findings that we have made and described above, if appellants choose to file a reply brief, they are hereby permitted to file under seal portions of that brief that disclose the contents of Exhibit 52. Moreover, at oral argument in this case, persons appearing on behalf of the parties shall not make any statements that would disclose the contents of records filed under seal.
